- On October 13th, 2020, ENGIE ANZ agreed to sell a 75% stake in ARET to ICG.
- ENGIE ANZ is a JV between global energy giant ENGIE (72%) and Japanese trading house Mitsui (28%). ENGIE and Mitsui have successfully collaborated with other investors on similar JV and renewables platforms globally.
- ICG is a leading Australian infrastructure manager, with c.A$2.5bn of equity under management.
- ARET is a renewables platform and partnership between ENGIE ANZ and ICG, aiming to facilitate the development, acquisition, construction and operation of Australian renewable energy assets (focusing on onshore wind and solar PV).
- ARET will be seeded with the 119 MW Willogoleche Wind Farm, an operational wind project located in South Australia.
- ENGIE ANZ will remain the operator for its portfolio of current renewable assets.

Highlights of Natixis and Azure Role

- This is the first sell-side M&A deal co-originated and co-executed by Natixis and Azure Capital, having successfully leveraged:
  - Global coverage and senior access into ENGIE (across Paris, Singapore, Melbourne) and Mitsui.
  - Sell-side execution expertise.
  - Experience in structuring complex platforms which defines how future assets will be transferred and managed.
  - Understanding and reach into global and local buyer universe.
  - In-depth knowledge of the seed asset as Natixis was an original lender to the Willogoleche Wind Farm.
- This landmark transaction showcases the combined expertise of Natixis and Azure Capital, and our seamless execution together as a team to deliver a successful outcome for the client.
- It also represents the successful elevation of our relationship with ENGIE and Mitsui in APAC, from being a project lender into a trusted strategic advisor.
- Successfully navigating the COVID-19 volatile environment to execute the transaction and achieve the client’s objectives.
- Concurrent to the M&A role, Natixis also continued to deliver a full spectrum of financing solutions to the client, including a Mandated Lead Arranger role on the refinancing of the existing Willogoleche loan and restructuring of the interest rate swaps.

On May 9th 2019, C.banner, a leading Chinese retailer of mid-to-premium women’s formal and casual footwear, signed a definitive share sale and purchase agreement to sell its 100% stake in Hamleys to Reliance, the largest retailer in India and subsidiary of Reliance Industries Limited, India’s largest private company.

Founded in 1760, Hamleys is the oldest retailer of toys in UK and, through its extensive franchise network, one of the largest in the world with 167 Hamleys-branded stores in 18 countries. The Company’s brand is world-renowned, with its flagship store in London attracting up to 5 million visitors each year.

Natixis/Vermilion acted as the exclusive financial advisor to C.banner in this transaction.

Natixis/Vermilion’s Role in Addressing Key Transaction Execution Challenges

- Change of Hamleys top management during sale process: Properly managed press coverage, communications with potential buyers and facilitated management transition and internal communications within Hamleys.

- Lacklustre financial performance of Hamleys business in recent years: Crafted an equity story focusing on Hamleys’ brand value and untapped potential to best position the sale.

- Public relations management: Pro-actively managed the messages in multiple stories initiated and delivered by independent journalists, in advance of their publications.

- Aggressive pre-emptive buyer interest: Leveraged strong buyer interest to drive competitive tension and valuation without compromising to provide exclusivity prematurely.

- Access to global buyer universe: Leveraged Natixis’ global M&A and client coverage network to access all relevant potential buyers.

- C.banner’s franchise agreement with RBL in China: Actively negotiated a long-term post-completion franchise agreement with RBL highly favourable to C.banner.

- Onerous disclosure and approval requirements with listed entities involved on both buy-side and sell-side: Worked collaboratively with C.banner and other professional parties to (1) obtain irrevocable undertakings from key shareholders to vote in favour of the deal and (2) prepare disclosure documentations in order to be fully compliant.

Deal Overview

- On January 15th, 2018, a consortium formed by Fosun International (“Fosun”) and Beijing Sanyuan Foods Co., Ltd. (“Sanyuan”), alongside St Hubert management, completed the acquisition of 100% of the share capital and voting rights of St Hubert, a leading manufacturer of plant-based products in France and Italy, from Montagu Private Equity and its managers for an enterprise value of €625 million.

- St Hubert is a leading manufacturer of plant-based products in France and Italy with over a century of history.

- Sanyuan is one of China’s leading dairy businesses listed on Shanghai Stock Exchange.

- Fosun International is a publicly listed entity on Hong Kong Stock Exchange and is a leading Chinese conglomerate focusing on investments to provide clients with solutions integrating wealth, health and happiness. Fosun International owns 20.5% of Sanyuan.

- Under the leadership of Fosun and Sanyuan, St Hubert would benefit from an entry into the attractive Chinese consumer market, leveraging Fosun / Sanyuan’s channels and resources.

- Sanyuan will also support St Hubert to maintain its leadership position in its home markets, and St Hubert will serve as Fosun / Sanyuan’s European investment platform, and a vehicle to implement the consortium’s investment and expansion plans in Europe.

- Natixis acted as exclusive strategic and financial advisor to the acquiring consortium formed by Fosun and Sanyuan in this acquisition.
