Self Storage Performance

- » Occupancy ticked up in Q2. Despite an 80 bps increase from the prior quarter, at 86.8%, the percentage remains below the typical level associated with second quarters in recent years, as demand remains suppressed.
- » Four regions posted negative asking rent growth yr-over-yr for 10x10 non-climate-controlled units, with three of those still significantly negative in magnitude. However, the West has turned a corner, with demand recovery that has propelled year-over-year asking rent growth for the region into positive territory.

- » Higher rent from new constructions has kept nominal rent growth positive, for now.
- » Performance forecast softened as uncertainties arose

Transaction Volume		5 quarters up, though Q2 nearly flat	Year-over-year recovery likely flat until 2026; but if recession avoided, rate cuts will help the bid-ask gap
Lending Volume		6 quarters up YoY, but pace has slowed	Growth dependent more on refinancing than acquisitions; rate cuts will help
Property Values		Lack of any real momentum as buyers and sellers stand off	Buyers will still have negotiation power & suppress prices into 2026
Credit		Delinquencies continue ramping; more than office now	3 of 5 core property types will get worse before better
